

Principal's Proclamation

I, _____, humble leader of _____, our esteemed institute of education, do hereby and officially declare the week of _____ as Hats Off to Reading — Hooray for Books! Week in honor of the extraordinary, laudatory imaginations and minds of the illustrious members of our stupendous student body.

During this time, we hold these truths to be self evident: that all readers are created equal; that they are encouraged to attend the Scholastic Book Fair at their appointed times; that among their rights are learning, literacy, and the pursuit of knowledge. That to secure these rights, students are urged to read books, attend the Family Event, and participate in various Hats Off to Reading events as they occur.

We proclaim this in order to form a more perfect Book Fair, provide for common reading interests, and secure the blessings of literacy for ourselves and our community.

I do ordain and establish this as my Hats Off to Reading Book Fair proclamation of the students, for the students, and by this person:
